Description of the topic and key learning outcomes.	Introduction to Christianity Module                      We begin the year exploring Christianity. We look at a range of traditions within the religion. From denominations, places of worship to the trinity. We study the holy text and key teaching from the Churches and leaders. This is loosely based on the assessed 'Christian Beliefs' module but is an introduction to both the new Edexcel Specification as well as the beliefs and tradition of this faith. Introduction to Islam Module                      We begin the year exploring Islam. We look at a range of traditions within the religion. We look at the Five Pillars of Islam in detail; at Place of Worship and Qur'an. This is loosely based on the assessed 'Islamic Beliefs' module but is an introduction to the new Edexcel Specification as well as the beliefs and tradition of this faith. Marriage and Family (from a Christian Perspective)                      This covers the relationship between Marriage	Marriage and Family (from a Christian Perspective)                      This covers the relationship between Marriage and Family from a Christian Perspective. We study Marriage and the religious ceremony and traditions. We look at Divorce as a moral issue and the Family unit and its significance within religion. Matters of Life and Death (from a Christian Perspective)                      This module starts with the understanding of the Sanctity of Life. It covers the moral dilemmas raised from Christians and non-religious believers in a variety of moral issues. We look at Abortion from a Pro-Choice and Pro-Life perspective, at Euthanasia and Suicide. We begin to consider Life after Death and what this might look like for a believer.	Matters of Life and Death (from a Christian Perspective)                      This module starts with the understanding of the Sanctity of Life.
