Roles and responsibilities overview

The head of centre is the individual who is accountable to the awarding bodies for ensuring that the centre is always compliant with the published JCQ regulations and awarding body requirements to ensure the security and integrity of the examinations/assessments.

The examinations officer is the person appointed by the head of centre to act on behalf of, and be the main point of contact for, the centre in matters relating to the general administration of awarding body examinations and assessments.

The head of centre may not appoint themselves as the examinations officer. A head of centre and an examinations officer are two distinct and separate roles.

The head of centre and/or examinations officer may operate across more than one centre. In such cases the head of centre must ensure there is suitable support in place, so they can meet their obligations across all centres for which they are responsible. The head of centre must ensure that these arrangements are covered by their examination contingency plan. (GR, section 2)

Marie George also works as Secondary Strategic Lead for the Arthur Terry Learning Partnership. This means she is sometimes off site and working in other school. In her absence her role as Head of Centre is covered by Rebecca Goode. This is also documented in our contingency plan.

Head of centre responsibilities

Candidate behaviour

Good behaviour and discipline are expected from all students, at Stockland Green School, at all times. Under exam situations the additional JCQ regulations are in place to ensure that students have an equal opportunity to perform well and without being disrupted by other students while adhering to strict rules of conduct.

- Any breach of JCQ regulations is malpractice which must automatically be reported by the Head of Centre (Headteacher) to the Exam Board.
- Any act which constitutes malpractice under JCQ regulations must be reported by the Head of Centre with students warned that information relating to a serious case of malpractice, may be shared with other awarding bodies, the regulators and/or the Police.
- If your child is involved in any incident that constitutes malpractice, Stockland Green may choose to charge you the entry fee for each of their exams prior to entry, or they will not be entered for any GCSE exams.
- Students whose behaviour is deemed unacceptable would be moved into a separate exam room so their behaviour cannot distract other students sitting their GCSE exams. This would involve additional invigilators working in these rooms at a cost of £16.00 per hour per invigilator. As extra rooms are not always available to use for exams, we may also need to hire a room for each exam at an additional cost of approximately £25.00 per hour. For an exam taking 2 ½ hours including set up time and exam time for one student this would be £120 per exam plus the cost of the exam. The cost for this would be requested from you in advance to allow the exam to go ahead.

Also see Irregularities below.

- may be denied entry to the exam, or their paper may not be marked if they are 'very late' (over one hour)

3. Qualifications Offered

The Headteacher and the Senior Leadership Team decide the qualifications we offer. We offer the following types of qualifications: GCSE and Level 1/ 2 vocational courses.

The subjects offered for these qualifications in any school year may be found in our options booklet and on the school website. As a rule, external examinations are sat in the final year of a students' key stage (ie at the end of Year 11). However, where an exam syllabus requires it (for example in the case of modules) or by exception with the agreement of the Head of Centre students may sit examinations at an alternative time.

If there will be a change to a specification for the next year (eg switching from OCR to AQA, this must be discussed with the SLT Line Manager and the exams office must be informed by 30/09/22 of Year 10.

Informing the exams office of changes to a specification is the responsibility of Heads of Faculty or a member of the Senior Leadership Team. Decisions on whether a candidate should be entered for a particular subject will be taken by Heads of Faculty in consultation with teachers and the SENDCo. However, any withdrawals from qualification (including proposed move to a lower level) must be approved by the Head of School, Rebecca Goode, as appropriate.

4. Exam Series

For students taking external examinations this academic year, internal trial assessments are scheduled in November 2022 and February 2023. These are held under exam conditions. It is expected that all subjects will offer an appropriate examination, unless by exception it is agreed not to with the Head of School, Rebecca Goode. Under normal circumstances external exams and assessments begin, in the main, in May 2023. Examinations scheduled at any other times are made known to individual students as appropriate.

5. Exam Timetables

Once confirmed, the exams officer will circulate the exam timetables for internal and/or external exams at a specified date before each series begins.

6. Entries (including entry details and late entries)

Candidates or parents/carers may request subject entry, change of level or withdrawal, however where the teacher/Director of Subject and parent/student disagree, the final decision lies with the Head of School, Rebecca Goode.

We do not accept entries from private candidates. We do not act as an exams centre for other organisations. Entry deadlines are circulated to Head of Faculty via e-mail. Head of Faculty will provide estimated entry information to the exams officer to meet JCQ and awarding body deadlines.

Entries and amendments made after an awarding organisation's deadline require authorisation, in writing, by the Head of School, Rebecca Goode.

Heads of Faculty must ensure that the exam office is advised of the required entries by the published deadlines. It is the responsibility of the department to advise the Exams Officer of the correct Exam Board and entry code to ensure entries are made correctly. With unitised courses the department must advise codes for both course registration and unit entries by the appropriate deadline. Any late fees will be passed back to the department.

The charges for this will be equivalent to full cost recovery for the school, dependent upon the charges levied by the exam board.
